For about US $10, a cheap, acceptable hotel room can be found in most countries. In some countries you may be able to pay less. If you are traveling on a tight budget, it is a good idea to ask for a boarding house; they are normally to be found in abundance near bus and railway stations. Good, inexpensive hotels can also be found near truckers' stops and service stations; they are usually secure. There are often great seasonal variations in hotel prices at resorts. Remember, cheaper hotels do not always supply soap, towels, and toilet paper, so carry these items with you. Book all hotels in advance by registered mail. If you receive no reply, do not worry; just ask the car rental agency employees at the airport for recommendations when you arrive.
